Institute of Standards & Industrial Research of Iran,
ISIRI

The basic idea of establishing Institute of Standards & Industrial Research of Iran (ISIRI) emerged upon the approval of "The Law of Weights and Measures" in 1925. Following the approval of the bill to establish ISIRI in 1960, the Institute became operational within the framework of the specified functions and responsibilities consequently joined the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) in the same year.

In 2011, ISIRI's national level was structured as an organization under the direct supervision of the President of Islamic Republic of Iran as it has already been under the supervision of Ministry of Industry, Mines and Commerce.
SCOPE OF SERVICE OF THE ORGANIZATION (RESPONSIBILITIES)

Standardization activities (development and publication of standards)
- Use of information technologies for standardization to raise social awareness
- Training services
- Consultancy services
- Sales of standards and other guides

Conformity assessment services
- Product certification
- Management systems certification
- Inspection services (import, export, market surveillance)

Accreditation services

Metrology activities
- Member body is also a national metrology institute
- Legal metrology activities
- Calibration services

Testing services
Other (please explain briefly)

PERSONNEL INFORMATION
Number of the staff working full time and directly employed by the organization

COMMITTEES
Number of national technical bodies for standardization activities (TCs+SCs)

NATIONAL STANDARDS
Number of national standards published
Number of OIC/SMIIC standards adopted as national standards